10 Lead Warning Statement

11 Every Buyer of any interest in residential real property on which a residential dwelling was built prior to 1978 is notified 12 that such property may present exposure to lead from lead-based paint that may place young children at risk of 13 developing lead poisoning. Lead poisoning in young children may produce permanent neurological damage, including 14 learning disabilities, reduced intelligence quotient, behavioral problems, and impaired memory. Lead poisoning also 15 poses a particular risk to pregnant women. The Seller of interest in residential real property is required to provide the 16 Buyer with any information on lead-based paint hazards from risk assessments or inspections in the Seller's possession 17 and notify the Buyer of any known lead-based paint hazards. A risk assessment or inspection for possible lead-based 18 paint hazards is recommended prior to purchase.

34 Seller's Acknowledgement

(Initial) SJW DRW

(c) Seller acknowledges that Seller has been informed of Seller's obligations to provide Buyer with the EPA-approved pamphlet, Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home; disclose to Buyer the presence of any known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the housing being sold; disclose to the real estate licensee the presence of any known lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards in the target housing and the existence of any available records or reports pertaining to the same; and provide those records or reports to the Buyer. Seller is aware that civil and criminal penalties may be imposed if the Seller fails to comply with these obligations. The seller must retain a copy of this disclosure for not less than three years from the commencement of the rental period.

44 Ten-day Opportunity to Conduct a Risk Assessment or Inspection (Seller/Buyer Initial) SJW DRW

(d) Seller hereby advises the Buyer that the Buyer has the right to a 10-day opportunity to conduct a risk assessment or inspection for the presence of lead-based paint and/or lead-based paint hazards before becoming obligated under the contract to purchase the housing. The parties may agree to a different period of time or the Buyer may waive the risk assessment or inspection opportunity in writing. The Buyer's decision regarding the 10-day opportunity should be reflected in the Buyer's offer. See e.g. Contract to Buy and Sell Real Estate Inspections.
